CORAM : S.C. DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 28TH SEPTEMBER, 2006.

P.C.

. All that the applicant seeks to relax is a condition wherein he is required to intimate the Investigating Officer and the Trial Court whenever he leaves the limits of Solapur city.

2. I do not see how such conditions can be interpreted to mean that the applicant is unable to leave the city limits without prior permission of the I.O. or the Trial Court. All that he is required to do is to intimate whenever he leaves Solapur. The mode of intimation is also not prescribed. In such circumstances, I do not see any reason for doing away with such a condition which does not appear to be excessive or arbitrary.

3. Application is disposed of.
